

A Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives of 501(c) Organizations

FACT SHEET

Deferred Compensation 457(b) Tax Exempt Plan Overview

What is a 457(b) Tax Exempt Plan?	A 457 Tax Exempt plan is a deferred compensation program that is established and maintained for a select group of management or highly compensated employees (key employees) of a tax-exempt 501(c) organization under Internal Revenue Code 457(b). It benefits employers by allowing them to fund a retirement vehicle for key employees in addition to a 401(k) or 403(b). The tax-exempt organization may also make deposits on the employee's behalf. This is an excellent benefit to help attract and keep key employees. One unique feature for this type of plan is that it must cover only a select group of management or highly compensated employees to avoid ERISA guidelines.
What are the Advantages of a 457(b) Tax Exempt Plan?	The Economic Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA) repealed the requirement that all salary reduction contributions to a 401(k) or 403(b) be aggregated with a 457(b) Tax Exempt plan. Designated key employees may now contribute to a 401(k) or 403(b) and to a 457(b) Tax Exempt plan at the same time., The annual limit for contributing to a 457 tax exempt plan in 2025 is $23,500. This same limit of $23,500 applies to 403(b) and 457 plans, which also offer two categories of catch-up contributions: $7,500 for ages 50+ and $11,250 for ages 60-63. By leveraging two plan types, designated employees can maximize savings. <table border="1" data-bbox="557 951 1521 993"> <tr> <td data-bbox="557 951 846 993">Tax Year: 2025</td><td data-bbox="854 951 1521 993">$23,500</td></tr> </table> A 457(b) Tax Exempt plan provides numerous benefits to both employees and employers. It aids in attracting and maintaining key employees within the organization by providing a lucrative retirement benefit. Additionally, all employee and employer contributions are made on a pre-tax basis, benefiting from tax deferral until the money is withdrawn from the account. Other advantages of the plan include no 10% IRS premature distribution penalty if the employee decides to take out their money at separation from service prior to retirement. The plan can also be made available to independent contractors that work for the organization.	Tax Year: 2025	$23,500

How is a 457(b) Tax Exempt Plan Different from a Qualified Plan?	Account balances in a 457(b) Tax Exempt deferred compensation plan are "unsecured," which means that contributions made to the plan are subject to the tax-exempt organization's creditors. Another difference is that loans are not available from plan accounts. Furthermore, 457(b) Tax Exempt plans cannot be rolled into a qualified plan or IRA upon severance from employment. It may, however, be moved to another 457(b) Tax Exempt plan. There are also no age 50 catch-up provisions such as are often found in 403(b), 457 and 401(k) plans.
